Adopt a Plan

A definite plan is the foundation of success in saving.
It doesn't make much difference what the plan of saving is, so long as it's systematic. Some people never spend the dimes they get—they put them in a convenient home savings bank.

Some men shave themselves and drop into the bank the money they would have to pay the barber. Others walk to the office and save the carfare.

You can select any plan which suits you. Regularity in your saving is the essential thing.
One dollar opens an account and starts your savings earning interest. BEGIN NOW.

Yellow Row Disturbance.

Leon Reo, aged 25, charged with breach of the peace and intoxication, was found guilty in police court Monday morning, although he entered a plea of not guilty. He was one of the men mixed up in the Yellow Row race Saturday evening. He was fined $5 and costs on each count, a total of $18.00. Albert Knapins, charged with assault upon Kate Muskal, and intoxicathe assaulted woman herself indicated that he had done as he admitted, the court fined him $3 and costs on each count.

Michael Maliga, wanted for assault last Sept. 14, pleaded guilty and was Hebrews to Build Synagogue.

The Hebrews of the city and community decided Sunday to have a regular place of worship soon. The meeting at which the decision was made was held at the home of Rabbi Max Levine. There were about 50 present.
The meeting was a very enthusiastic one. Following a discussion it was voted to form a religious organization to be known as the Sons of Israel. These officers were chosen: President, Harry Chassen; treasurer, Hyman Israel; secretary, Abraham Gluskin; trustees, Aaron Peck, Samuel Eisenberg and Philip Cohen. The project of purchasing a lot for the erection of a synagogue was discussed and a committee of seven was appointed for the purpose: Louis Polner, Samuel Smith, Jacob Cohen, Aaron Peck, Henry Chassen, Morris Rothblatt and Philip Cohen.
The committee and officers will meet each Sunday to report progress.
About $1,000 is said to be now available toward the fund for the erection of a synagogue.

Industrial company Monday declared a 2 1/2 per cent. dividend to the stock-

Only One Name Nominated.

The republican city committee is not in such a quandary as it believed it to be, as but one vacancy remains to be filled to complete the ticket for the biennial city election Dec. 4th, that of a candidate for alderman from the first ward to succeed the late Judge William C. Case, resigned. Frank R.
Jackson, who was tendered the nomination as alderman from the Second ward, although he was not in the hall when the ward caucus was held, had had emphatically and members of the ward that he would not accept the nomination, afterwards, when he was named, notified Judge William A. Arnold, chairman of the ward committee, that he had not been on a candidate at any time in this ward.
He did not want any part of it. He has finally consented to permit his name to stand, providing the committee can not get anyone else to take the nomination.

It is understood that deposits in postal savings banks in towns in this section are increasing slowly, but the majority of the deposits are putting in only small amounts. Little is said to be making the best showing of any of the eastern Connecticut small town banks of this kind.

LIFE MEMBERS' FUND

To Be Created from Life Membership

Fees of Agricultural Society.

At the recent annual meeting of the Willimantic County Agricultural society it was voted that the money received from life membership fees be deposited as a life fund, the proceeds to be used for the maintenance of the society's property. This should provide considerable revenue for the society, a large number of life members of the society.

long period of making changes at the central office building of the Southern New England Telephone Co.
For months artisans of many kinds have been at work there installing the common battery system and generally remodeling the interior of the building, both on the first and second floors.
What was formerly the operating room on the first floor has been transformed into a business office in the rear of which is the terminal and wire chief's room. The operating room is now on the second floor where there is also an operators' room, fitted for the convenience of the young women who handle the service. The Danielson office is now one of the most modernly equipped of any in the small town of East Killingly.

A Forgotten Part of Killingly.

"This," with a circling sweep of the hand, "was at one time the most popular section of the town of Killingly," said George Jacques, Saturday evening, as he was guiding nearly two score members of the Bohemian club and their friends on their excursion through the woods in the northwest corner of the town. The party at the time stood on the edge of a heavily wooded and clothed in tangled undergrowth.

All through this section," continued Mr. Jacques, "you will notice cellar holes over which comfortable benches have been placed, these overgrown and densely covered areas were once planted to corn and rye. That was in the 120 years ago, when the parts of Killingly that are now active and prosperous were as these lands are now.

This was news to many of the men present who had lived for years in the town, and who had heard of the settlement of long ago are to be seen and the old records and the little emement in the heart of the woods bear out the correctness of the claim.

Eggs 48c Per Dozen.

Strictly fresh eggs were 48 cents a dozen in Danielson Monday, and the hens, which have the situation in hand, are standing on their feet, and advancely as put as the fortunate holder of four cents, and waiting for another trip to the nest in the heart of the woods, according to those who know how hens are prone to act when they are in the nest.

This, of course, makes cheerful reading for the man who is trying to reduce the cost of living, and is reducing his appetite. Incidentally, butter is selling at 40 cents a pound for the real article.

CAR TURNED TURTLE.

Harry C. Harwood Seriously Injured
When Auto Goes Through Fence.

Harry C. Harwood, 15, of Providence, was seriously injured at East Killingly Monday afternoon when he lost control of a big touring car while driving down the street and hit near the home of Alcott D. Sayles and let the machine plunge through a fence and off a ten-foot embankment. The car turned turtle, plunging Harwood underneath. He became unconscious a short time after being removed and later was taken to the Day Kimball hospital at Putnam. He has several broken ribs and is internally injured, but is not on the dangerous list at the hospital. Harwood is a chauffeur for Y. I. Dana of Providence, secretary of the Whitestone Bleachery company plant at East Killingly. The boy was alone in the car when it went over the bank. The machine, not badly injured, was towed to a Danielson garage.
